The image shows a promotional banner with a dark blue background. On the left, there is a circular graphic containing the Windows logo and the Office logo. Below it, the text reads: "Windows Vista and Microsoft Office are great on their own, but with each other, it's the Power of Together. Learn how to tap their power." In the center, the heading "Power Together" is displayed. To the right, there are two main promotional cards. The first card is for Windows Vista, featuring the Windows logo and the text: "Windows Vista: Visually exciting, intuitively designed". Below this, it describes Vista as a breakthrough computing experience and offers a "FREE FULL LICENSE OF Windows Vista Business*" as a reward for completing three webcasts. The second card is for Microsoft Office 2007, featuring the Office logo and the text: "2007 Microsoft Office system: Collaborate, share, get results". It describes how the system allows individuals to work together and offers a "FREE FULL LICENSE OF Microsoft Office Professional 2007*" as a reward for completing three webcasts or vLabs. Both cards have a "FREE GIFT" icon and a right-pointing arrow. At the bottom of each card, there are five icons representing different activities: "Learn & Interact", "Launch", "Discuss", "Promotions", and "Watch". A small link "* Offering Details" is located at the bottom left of the banner.

Windows Vista and Microsoft Office are great on their own, but with each other, it's the Power of Together. Learn how to tap their power.

Power Together

Windows Vista: Visually exciting, intuitively designed

Windows Vista is a breakthrough computing experience that will change the way people use their PCs. It works the way they want it to work. It adapts to users, rather than the other way around. And it dramatically improves access to information, wherever that information is stored.
